Mrs. SAROJINI NAIDU

Sarojini Naidu is the gem of Indian women. She was born in Hyderabad on 13th February 1879. Srimathi Varada Sundari Devi and Dr. Aghoranantha Chatopadhyaya were her parents. Their family was famous for Sanskrit learning .Sorojini's fathers fore fathers were great Sanskrit scholars and poets.

Sorojini was very intelligent in her studies. She passed the Matriculation examination even at the age of twelve. By her thirteenth year she began to write poems. Her first poems 'Lady of the Lake 'brought her name and fame. From 1895 to 1898 she studied in England. She took her M.A., degree in the Cambridge University there. On he return to India in 1998 she married Dr.Sri Govindarajulu Naidu. They had two sons and two daughters.

Sorojini was great patriot. She was a follower of Mahatma Gandhi. She was took part in the freedom struggle many a time. She presided over the Indian National Congress Session. For many years she was a member of the Congress Session Working Committee.

After the advent of freedom she was appointed as the Governor of Uttar Pradesh. She proved to be an able Governor. She died on 2nd March 1949.
